

Interested in joining a multinational team of high-spirited software professionals?

We are looking for passionate developers with experience in Java, .NET or Web development interested to learn and work with the Salesforce.com platform to extend our team in Banska Bystrica.

The work includes whole development process such as requirements analysis, design, coding, unit test, documentation and deployment. You become a part of excellent international team of developers you can learn from and share the experience with.

You will be working with international customers and co-workers in Finland, Sweden, Norway and Denmark, which gives you the possibility of traveling and working abroad as well as using English as the business language.

We can offer you:

Exciting projects for international clients, Flexible working time, The possibility to work from home and abroad, To be part of a highly-qualified international team with a great team spirit, Work with new technologies, Get experience on Salesforce.com, Team building activities, Modern office environment

Requirements for the employee:

We are looking for a professional IT developer who understands and has implemented component based software, has a prior experience in Web development and is reliable and self-motivated individual. He should be able fluently communicate in both written and spoken English.

Required Computer skills:

HTML, JavaScript, Web Development, Java (basic), .Net or PHP (basic)

Brief description of the company

Since Fluido's foundation in 2010 the company has developed Salesforce solutions for over 280 customers of all sizes and various business verticals. Fluido customers include KONE Corporation, YIT, Falck, ECCO, and Qliktech as well as several other major globally operating enterprises.

Fluido is headquartered in Espoo, Finland with offices in Stockholm, Oslo, Copenhagen and Banska Bystrica.

For more information please look at www.fluidogroup.com

Contact: silvia.jagercikova@fluidogroup.com

